World's Fair Notes. "Ireland's own" band, the finest organization of musicians in all Ireland, will play at the fair. The band is com-posed of sixty musicians, each one a prize winner. The band has won every first prize offered in Ireland since 1885. The organization is said to be of the highest class—tone, intonation, execution, ensemble, precision and instrumentation. It is claimed that every man in the sixty is a teetotaler.

The annihilation of the Jersey mosquito will form the basis for a unique exhibit in the palace of forestry, fish and game at the fair. Small minnows that float on the surface and eat the eggs deposited by the mosquito is what New Jerseyites are depending on to rid them of the mosquito pests.

An elephant made entirely from almonds will stand in the palace of agriculture at the world's fair. P. D. Bane, the owner of a large almond orchard near Orland, Cal., contributed the nuts for the construction of the unique exhibit. The almond elephant will occupy space in the big California

The mammoth proportions of Texas will prove a revelation even to students of geography when the visitor to the world's fair views the great six-acre map that the agricultural experts have caused to be made in growing crops at the Louisiana purchase exposition.

Some of the important eastern states appear but a dot on the big tract. The parts of Texas devoted to crops of cot-ton and of corn are larger than the en-tire space occupied by many states of great commercial importance.

White Girl Weds Negro.

Camden, N. J., is stirred over the marriage of a pretty white woman to a negro on Saturday last, and the father of the bride swears vengeance. Rev. John T. Plenttv, colored, pastor of the Seventh Baptist Church, performed the cere-mony which made Harry Riley, colored, aged 21 years, and Miss Sarah Clark, a white woman, aged 28 years, man and wife. Riley, the groom, is employed in a wholesale grocery house. The bride's father when he heard of the marriage s vore a terrible oath to kill heron sight. The young woman's relatives say they intend to have the marriage annulled by Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by E. S.
